

Privacy Policy

Protecting your privacy is important to us. We hope the following statement will help you understand how U.S. Manufacturing, Inc., collects, uses and safeguards the personal information you provide to us on our Site.

We do not collect personally identifiable information about you, except when you provide it to us. For example when you complete the USM Feedback Form or Custom Parts Quote, the forms prompt you to enter your name, company name, e-mail address, mailing address, phone number, and make and model of machine. This information is used by us to complete your request and also to further market our products. We do not disclose your information to a third party for marketing purposes. If you supply us with your information online, you may receive periodic mailings or receive telephone contact from U.S. Manufacturing with information regarding new products and special promotions. If you do not wish to receive these mailings or calls, please let us know by either e-mailing us at the above address or calling us at the above number.

Cookies are pieces of information that a Web site transfers to an individual's hard drive for record-keeping purposes while at the site. We use cookies to record past activity on our Site in order to provide better service when visitors return to our Site. The cookie itself does not contain any personally identifying information. Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. You can set your browser to reject our cookies. If you reject our cookies, you may still use the site, but may be limited in the use of some of the features. We may use IP addresses to administer the Site, analyze trends, and track traffic patterns. We may use the information you provide in aggregate (non-personally identifiable) form for internal business purposes, such as generating statistics and developing marketing plans. We may collect, store or accumulate certain non-personally identifiable information concerning your use of the Site, such as information regarding which of our pages are most popular.

We have appropriate security measures in place in our physical facilities to protect against the loss, misuse, or alteration of information that we have collected from you at our Site.

Upon request we offer visitors to our Site the ability to change the personally identifiable information you provide to us by either e-mailing us at the above address or calling us at the above number.

We may revise this privacy policy from time to time. If we decide to change this policy, we will post the revised policy here.

U.S. Manufacturing has taken great measures to ensure that your visit to our Site is an excellent one, and that your privacy is constantly respected. If you have any comments or concerns about the site's privacy practices, please contact us by e-mail or telephone.
